Virginia Code § 46.2-684.2 requires an owner or lessee of a pickup, panel truck or sport utility vehicle claiming a registration exemption for a farm vehicle pursuant to §§ 46.2-665, 46.2-666, 46.2-670, 46.2-672, or 46.2-673 to obtain a permanent farm use placard and to display such placard on the vehicle at all times. The fee for the placard is $15. Total fees will be calculated at the time of processing. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The vehicle must be titled (Virginia Code § 46.2-600), but is not required to obtain a state inspection (Virginia Code § 46.2-1158.01(21)). Farm vehicles requiring the farm use placard are pickups, panel trucks or sport utility vehicles used for: agricultural or horticultural purposes; seasonal transportation of farm produce and livestock; transportation of certain wood products; or, transportation of fertilizer, cotton, or peanuts. Return trips of the vehicle displaying a farm use placard are limited to: making a return trip from any marketplace; transporting back to a farm ordinary and essential food (Virginia Code § 46.2-673) and other products for home and farm use (Virginia Code § 46.2-673); or, transporting supplies to the farm. The placard is permanent and valid for so long as the owner or lessee uses the vehicle for an exempt purpose and it does not require renewal. The placard is nontransferable and must be returned to the DMV within 30 days of the vehicle ceasing to be used for one or more of the exempt purposes. It is a traffic infraction to violate the permanent farm use placard limitations while operating an unregistered vehicle pursuant to these registration exemptions (Virginia Code § 46.2-613). Unregistered farm use vehicles must be insured by a policy authorized pursuant to Virginia Code § 46.2-684.1. Failure to furnish proof of insurance within 30 days when required by a law-enforcement officer is a traffic infraction punishable by a $600 fine.
